This 2 x 3 metre image has the words 'what does the future hold for Disabled Peoples Orgs?' at the top with a time line of 1 year, 5 years, 20 years and 100 years. Above a big heading of 1 year there is a newspaper with the words 'Chaos, Personalisation Chaos, Education needed. Next to this is a person and the words more choice, less resources and some buildings with the words 'reliance on the voluntary sector under them. Above a big heading of 5 years are the words inclusive education and a image of school, a group of people with a banner reading 'life for all and a special school with a red cross through it indicating it is closed. There is also, a newspaper cover with the headline 'Panic, lots of unknowns, where have the campaigns gone'. There is a map of the UK, with a red cross through it and the words 'welfare state'. A hand pokes out the side clutching some cash indicating money be taken away. Above a big heading of 20 years are the words 'louder voice' with a group of disabled people campaigning, 'big advances in stem cell research' with a scientist holding a test tube, a newspaper headline reading 'disabled people topple big org empires', a DNA helix and the words 'science proves we are all the same', and two houses with the words 'housing needs met'. Above a big heading of 100 years is a newspaper headline reading 'disabled alien found', some grave stones and paper cut out people holding hands with the words 'integrate or divide'. At the bottom of the whole image., across the page from left to right is an arrow starting with a confused person, moving through a map of the UK, to a person holding a flip chart, indicating they have a plan. Underneath this is the words 'Strategic analysis' and 'Disability LIB'.
